

About the Authors

Prof Alan Barrell DBA FRSA
Entrepreneur in Residence
Judge Business School, University of Cambridge

Professor Alan Barrell currently works as Entrepreneur in Residence, University of Cambridge, Visiting Professor of Enterprise, University of Luton, Senior Enterprise Fellow, University of Essex and Visiting Professor of Entrepreneurship, University of Xiamen, Fujian Province, China. He is appointed Investment Attorney by the Municipality of Xiamen. He supports the work of Dragon Cambridge International and through University of Essex is working on two way incubator projects with Harbin University, China. He visits China regularly on teaching and business missions and has set up manufacturing operations in Guangdong Province.

Professor Barrell graduated in biology, worked in the National Health Service as a haematologist before spending 20 years in the health care industry. Subsequently he was CEO of two Cambridge based hi-tech ink jet printing companies, and for four years, Managing Partner of the Cambridge Gateway Fund, an early stage technology venture fund. He is a founder shareholder of the investor and research organisation, The Library House Ltd. In 2005 he was honoured with the Award from Queen Elizabeth 2nd of "The Queen's Award for Enterprise Promotion", being one of the first ten recipients of this new Award for "Encouraging Enterprise in Others". His web address is: www.alanbarrell.com.

Dr Wei Wang
Managing Director
2W China Investment Consulting Ltd

Dr Wei Wang has had over fifteen years of international business experience. In particular, he has been at the core of developing a number of multi-million dollar business ventures for a global conglomerate in China. Following education in China, he received a PhD in manufacturing engineering and an MBA from Loughborough University, UK. He currently serves on the advisory board of Journal of Chinese Entrepreneurship. To explore what China has to contribute to the world in the 21st century, aside from business consulting, he has launched ventures in publishing, health care and education services, and runs thechinaforum.com.